WHISTLEBLOWER POLICY

1. Preamble

This Policy sets out the current version of the ‘Whistleblower Policy’ which has been framed and adopted by Freecharge Payment Technologies Pvt Ltd(“Company”) in terms of the applicable law. The Policy was adopted by the Company in 2018 and has been periodically reviewed and revised.

This Policy gives Whistleblower(s) (as defined herein) a platform to report Protected Disclosures (as defined herein) without fear of retribution or vengeful action from the persons against whom the Protected Disclosure was submitted, in addition to providing for requisite actions to be taken on a Protected Disclosure being received by the Company. The Policy is hosted on the Freecharge’s website as well as on Freecharge HRMS. All employees are required to submit annual declarations of having read and understood this, Policy.

The potential Whistleblowers are advised to go through the Policy's contents carefully and exercise their rights judiciously.

2. Purpose

Freecharge Payment Technologies Private Limited (“Freecharge” or the Company) is committed to complying with laws that apply to it, satisfying the Company’s Code of Conduct and other internal policies and particularly to ensuring that business is conducted with the highest standards of professionalism and integrity. If potential violations of Company policies or applicable laws are not recognized and addressed promptly, the Company and those working for or with the Company could face governmental investigation, prosecution, fines, and other penalties. Additionally, the reputation of the Company and its affiliates could suffer irreparable damage. A culture of openness and accountability is thus essential in order to prevent such situations occurring or to address them when they occur. Accordingly, this Whistle Blower Policy (“Policy”) aims to:

- encourage employees to report suspected wrongdoing as soon as possible with the knowledge that their concerns will be taken seriously and investigated as appropriate and that their confidentiality will be respected
- provide employees with guidance as to how to raise such concerns; and
- reassure employees that they should be able to raise genuine concerns regarding potential violations easily and free of any fear of retaliation.

Freecharge has adopted the following policy and procedures for the receipt, retention and treatment of complaints and allegations regarding accounting, internal controls, auditing or legal matters and the confidential, anonymous submissions by employees of such concerns and to provide employees an avenue to raise genuine concerns in a confidential & anonymous manner, if they observe unethical & improper practices, governance weaknesses, financial irregularities or reporting issues, or any other wrongful conduct and to prohibit victimization of employees who have reported concerns in accordance with this policy.

3. Glossary of Terms

Complaints related to behavioural matters can be reported under the Staff Accountability Framework to:
 - a) Manager, or
 - b) Skip-level Manager, or
 - c) Human Resources Department/HR RM or,
 - d) HR mail id hrteam@freecharge.com

5. Roles and Duties of the Whistleblower

- A Whistleblower is a person who makes a Protected Disclosure, without acting as an investigator and cannot, therefore, require or instruct the investigation to be conducted as per the Whistleblower's own will, nor does he/she have a right to participate in any investigative activity other than to the extent that his/her cooperation is sought by the investigation officer(s).
- The Whistleblower is not entitled to determine/direct what type of corrective or remedial action may be warranted with respect to a Protected Disclosure.
- The Whistleblower should provide specific and verifiable details in the Protected Disclosure in an appropriate language that is not offensive.

Human Resources| FCPT HR PL02 – Whistleblower Policy & Procedure

- The Whistleblower can seek clarifications with respect to this Policy, including the Whistleblower's role and the implications of submitting the Protected Disclosure from the HR Head. The final decision to make the Protected Disclosure will, however, be solely that of the Whistleblower.
- Though the Whistleblower would not necessarily be required to conclusively prove the points contained in the Protected Disclosure, in order to support such disclosure, the Whistleblower should provide all available evidence (which should be specific and verifiable and relate to the business, operations or affairs of the Company) to establish a prima facie case for investigation.

6. Protection available to the Whistleblower

- The identity of the Whistleblower (in case revealed by the Whistleblower) shall be kept confidential and will not be revealed other than as specified here under.
- Complete protection will be given to the Whistleblower against retaliation or retribution consequent upon his/her having reported a Protected Disclosure. In the event the Whistleblower experiences any such incidents, the Whistleblower should immediately report the same by email to the Whistleblower Committee at whistleblower@freecharge.com or Freecharge Board at wb.board@freecharge.com
- Any Whistleblower raising a concern under the Policy in good faith, believing it to be substantially true, is assured of the protection.
- The Company will take steps to minimize the difficulties that a Whistleblower may face in the submission of a Protected Disclosure. For instance, the Whistleblower will be reimbursed for the expenses incurred in travel, boarding, and lodging for tendering evidence, if warranted, as per applicable internal policies.
- In case any action has been initiated against the Whistleblower (for acts of omission or commission attributed to the Whistleblower), the disciplinary authority in such cases should comprise of Officers of grade not lower than the grade of Director.
- Any person who assists in investigating a Protected Disclosure and/or assists in disciplinary/ whistleblower proceedings relating to the Protected Disclosure will also be protected to the same extent as the Whistleblower.
- In case the protection to the Whistleblower as well as persons assisting in the investigation (and/or assisting in the disciplinary/ whistleblower proceedings) is violated in any manner, the same may be reported by email to the Whistleblower Committee or to Freecharge Board at wb.board@freecharge.com.

The protections available under this Policy will not be extended to the following circumstances:

- If the Whistleblower has raised a complaint/protected disclosure to a forum other than the Committee(s) and has revealed his/her identity.
- If the protection is sought from departmental actions arising out of false or bogus disclosure made with mala fide intention or complaints made to settle personal grievance
- If the disclosures made by the Whistleblowers are subsequently found to be mala fide or frivolous or with a malicious intention. Such Whistleblowers shall be liable to be prosecuted, and appropriate disciplinary action will be taken against them under the applicable Company's policies, when it is established that the Protected Disclosure has been made with the intention of malice
- If any adverse action has been taken against the Whistleblower which is independent of his/her disclosure under this Policy or alleged wrongful conduct, poor job performance, any other disciplinary action, etc. unrelated to a disclosure made pursuant to this Policy.

Human Resources| FCPT HR PL02 – Whistleblower Policy & Procedure

- The identity of the Whistleblower will not be protected and may be revealed in the following scenarios (i) as required in terms of any law or regulation or orders of any courts or tribunals; and the team carrying out the investigation into the Protected Disclosure(ii) to members of the Committee(s); (iii) to the officials/External Consultants assisting the Committee(s); (iv) to the officials of the HR Team; (v) as permitted/required by the Whistleblower; (vi) [to the ‘ Subject’ if the allegations are of a personal nature and the Subject is required to know the identity of the Whistleblower for cooperating in the investigation as per assessment of the applicable investigation department(s)]; (vii) if the identity has been disclosed in the public domain by the Whistleblower, or by any other person other than as a breach of this Policy.
- Any employee who is found to be involved in misuse or malicious use of the Policy, or making false allegations or seeking personal advantage would not get protection under the policy and would face strict disciplinary action.
- A Whistleblower will not get protection under this Policy if the Whistleblower is also found guilty of any misconduct (with respect to the Protected Disclosure or otherwise). It is clarified that, while the Committee(s) will take cognizance of the Protected Disclosure, Whistleblower’s misconduct will be dealt with separately and is liable for disciplinary action, if such misconduct is proven.

7. Protected Disclosures received from Anonymous Whistleblower(s)

The Company encourages Whistleblower(s) to disclose their identity while making the Protected Disclosure under the Policy. However, if the Whistleblower wishes to keep the identity anonymous, such Protected Disclosure may be investigated by the Company only if the Committee is satisfied that such anonymous Protected Disclosure contains specific and verifiable information along with evidence (to the extent available with the Whistleblower) to establish a prima facie case for investigation. However, it is clarified that until the Committee is satisfied that such anonymous Protected Disclosure contains specific and verifiable information, the Company is not bound to take any specific steps/actions or conduct investigation(s) in relation to such Protected Disclosure. Neither the Company nor the Committee(s) bear any liability or responsibility in this regard.

If in the opinion of the Company, the information provided by the anonymous Whistleblower is insufficient, the Company will attempt to reach out to the anonymous Whistleblower (if possible) to obtain additional information to enable the conduct of an investigation.

Where such Protected Disclosures are not investigated due to a lack of specific and verifiable information, these shall, in any event, be kept on file and in the records. If at any subsequent stage the Whistleblower comes forward with identifying the Whistleblower or provides sufficient proof to the satisfaction of the Committee, the Company shall consider the same afresh.

With respect to anonymous Protected Disclosures, the Company (including the investigating departments and the Whistleblower/ Disciplinary departments) may request the Whistleblower to disclose his/her identity, for the purposes of conducting the investigation into such allegations. For example, the Company may request Whistleblower to disclose his/her identity, including if the allegations related to the following: -

- Discrimination or victimization suffered by the Whistleblower on account of raising a Whistleblower complaint.
- Unethical/illegal/wrongful transactions where the Whistleblower may also be involved / is a party to the transaction and such details are required for the investigation.

8. Whistleblower Committee

The Whistle Blower Committee shall be constituted of the following employees:

Human Resources| FCPT HR PL02 – Whistleblower Policy & Procedure

Name	Designation
Samarth Govila	Chief Compliance Officer & Head- Legal
Pawan Vats	Director – Product Management
Kapil Saneja	Associate Director - Technology

The chairperson of the committee will be appointed from amongst the committee members.

- The list of members may undergo a change from time to time which shall be approved by the CEO and same shall be communicated to the Board.

9. Role of the Whistleblower Committee

- The Whistleblower Committee will consider the credibility of the Protected Disclosure, the gravity of the issue raised and the likelihood of proving the allegation(s) from independent, verifiable sources.
- The Whistleblower Committee shall have the discretion to appoint any official(s) of the Company/ external expert/agency to carry out any investigation as it may feel necessary.
- The Whistleblower Committee may refer a complaint: To the Business for further fact-finding or to the HR Department for investigation in cases related to: Workplace/ behavioral issues/HR concerns.
- The Whistleblower Committee, may, in its sole discretion, refer back an investigation report(s) (IVR) for further examination if the Committee members are of the view that the findings with regard to the allegations made in the Protected Disclosure are not adequately addressed. Further, the Whistleblower Committee may also require a fresh investigation to be conducted or expand the scope of the existing investigation, if the Whistleblower Committee is of the view that such actions are warranted.
- Any member of the Whistleblower Committee who has a conflict of interest shall promptly disclose the same to the other members and recuse himself/herself from the matter. If any such conflict of interest is discovered (whether or not disclosed) the concerned member of the Whistleblower Committee shall be removed.

10. Procedure for Reporting Protected Disclosures

All reports under this Policy will be promptly and appropriately investigated by the Whistle Blower Committee, and all information disclosed during the course of the investigation will remain confidential, except as necessary to conduct the investigation and take any remedial action, in accordance with applicable law.

Everyone working for or with the Company has a duty to cooperate in an investigation. Failure to cooperate in an investigation, or deliberately providing false information during an investigation, can be the basis for disciplinary action as per the Disciplinary Policy. If, at the conclusion of its investigation, the Whistle Blower Committee determines that a violation has occurred, the Company will take effective disciplinary action as per the Disciplinary Policy to commensurate with the nature & penalties for the offense.

This action may include disciplinary action as per the Disciplinary Policy against the accused party, up to and including termination. Reasonable and necessary steps will also be taken to prevent any further violations.

Human Resources| FCPT HR PL02 – Whistleblower Policy & Procedure

The Whistle Blower who made the allegation may be required to provide additional information to the Whistle Blower Committee during the course an investigation.

- d) Copies of documents that will help in establishing the veracity of the Protected Disclosure should be attached to the Protected Disclosure. Please also note that Freecharge requires specific and verifiable information along with evidence (to the extent available with the Whistleblower) to establish a prima facie case for investigation in the case of anonymous Protected Disclosures.

- e) An acknowledgement of receipt of the Protected Disclosure will be sent to the Whistleblower through the prescribed electronic channels.

11. Investigation and Redressal of the Protected Disclosure

- The Protected Disclosure received under this Policy will be examined to determine if a prima facie case exists for inquiry and investigation
- However, the decision to conduct an investigation is by itself not acceptance of the allegations. In other words, the investigation process is to be treated as a neutral fact- finding process.
- Stringent disciplinary or other action may be initiated against Whistleblowers making/facilitating frivolous complaints/ Protected Disclosures.
- The Subject(s) shall have a duty to co-operate with the Committee /any of the investigation officers during investigation.
- Once the investigation is completed and an appropriate action has been taken by the Committee, the Whistleblower will be informed about the closure, as may be authorized by the Committee.
- If it is deemed necessary by the investigation authority, that it is necessary to verify the contents of the Protected Disclosure, the investigation authority (Internal/ External) may contact the Whistle Blower at the address/ phone number/ e-mail ID given in the Protected Disclosure for the purpose of investigation (wherein the details have been revealed by the Whistleblower).
- If the Whistleblower is dissatisfied with the disposal of the Protected Disclosure, the Whistleblower may approach Freecharge Board at wb.board@freecharge.com.
- However, the Committee/CEO/ Freecharge Director, as the case maybe, will not be liable to disclose to the Whistleblower the outcome of the investigation and action taken in this regard. Further, any requests by Whistleblower on the status of the Protected Disclosure/outcome of the investigation/ action taken etc. will not be entertained.

12. Outcome of Investigations into Allegations under a Whistleblower Policy

If the investigation report reveals that a fraudulent ,an illegal, unethical, or inappropriate action(s), behaviour (s), or practice(s) has been committed, the Protected Disclosure along with the investigation report shall be (a) referred to Disciplinary Action Committee for disciplinary procedure/ action against the erring Subject(s) in accordance with the Disciplinary Policy of the Company; (b) in respect of behavioural issues/ HR related matters, included in complaints relating to fraud, illegal, unethical, or inappropriate actions ,the Designated Authority can direct corrective action by HR such as: counselling, transfer, role change, etc. against the erring Subject(s) as deemed fit by the Designated Authority basis the investigation report; or (c) any other actions as the relevant committee deems fit basis the investigation report. It is clarified that any disciplinary or corrective action initiated against the Subject(s) as a result of the findings of an investigation pursuant to this Policy shall be as per the applicable disciplinary procedures of the Company enumerated in the Company's Code of Conduct and Disciplinary Policy and Company may also take other actions against the Subject(s) as deemed fit, including actions under other polices of Company.

13. Reporting to the Board and CEO

A quarterly report on the synopsis of Protected Disclosures made pursuant to this Policy shall be submitted to the Board and

Human Resources| FCPT HR PL02 – Whistleblower Policy & Procedure

CEO for information. HR Department shall assist the Whistleblower Committee with the administration of the policy and will monitor and submit quarterly reports to the Board.

14. Display and Notification

This Policy shall be displayed on the Freecharge Website and Freecharge HRMS (Empower).

15. Retention of Documents

- All Protected Disclosures, along with other documents relating thereto shall be retained by the Company for a minimum of Ten years or as maybe required under the Company’s internal policies/ applicable laws and guidelines.
- The investigation report of each investigation duly approved/ reviewed by the Competent Authority / by the concerned Investigation Officers shall be retained for the same period as set out in Clause 14.a) for future requirements of either the Company or the external authority.

16. Breach of the Policy

The Company reserves the right to take disciplinary action as per the Disciplinary Policy or initiate criminal proceedings as and when it is considered necessary in respect of all reported cases of violation of this policy. Disciplinary action may include termination of services of employees and/or legal action against those who violate the spirit of this policy, regardless of whether unlawful conduct has actually occurred or not. This Policy document is made available at all locations of the Company with a clear objective to establish the standard approach in addressing issues discussed in this Policy.
